Art Unit: 2644

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-14, drawn to general analog voice signal for network appliance or parameter control, classified in class 381, subclass 110.

II. Claim 15-16, drawn to apparatus to enter information for a network node with speech recognition component for receiving and retrieving analog voice signals, classified in class 704, subclass 275.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability because the article and method as claimed with general voice information control does not required the subcombination II for patentability. The subcombination has separate utility such as utilizing speech recognition component of the apparatus for synthesizing different personal voice signals or speaker voice identification or verification for security purpose.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
